

Julia Vorhölter

Short-Bio

Julia Vorhölter studied social anthropology and political science at Hamburg University, and holds a PhD in anthropology from Göttingen University where she works as a lecturer and post-doc researcher at the Institute of Social and Cultural Anthropology. Her most recent project focuses on contemporary discourses on mental health and emerging forms of psychotherapy in Uganda. Contact: Institute for Social and Cultural Anthropology, Göttingen University, Theaterstraße 14, 37073 Göttingen, Germany. Email: jvorhoe@gwdg.de