

Tenure-track Positions at McGill in Indigenous Psychology

Indigenous Psychology within the Canadian Context

The Department of Educational and Counseling Psychology invites applications for a tenure-track position in the area of Indigenous Psychology within the Canadian Context, at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor starting in August 2017. The Department offers graduate programs in Human Development and Inclusive Education, Learning Sciences, School/Applied Child Psychology and Counseling Psychology. The Department is also responsible for teaching the undergraduate psychology courses in the Faculty of Education.

Please direct inquiries and applications to: ecp@mcgill.ca. Include the title Indigenous Psychology Search in the subject field.