Dear Colleagues and Friends,

This is a call for papers for the post-Prague conference volume "Image, Phenomenon and Imagination in the Phenomenology of Religious Experience". This volume will be published in the series Libri Nigri, with editor Hans Rainer Sepp, in the publishing house Traugott Bautz. http://home.bautz.de/libri_nigri/libri_nigri.html. This volume will be not just a collection of conference papers, but will have a strong research focus, with the introduction, outline of SOPHERE problematics, several thematized sections with concluding remarks and commentaries from the editors (Martin Nitsche and Olga Louchakova-Schwartz). The approximate publication date is the end of 2019.

If you are interested in publishing your research in this volume, please send us the Letter of Intent (no more than 300 words) by January 10, 2019. LOI should reflect critical points of your project, with the emphasis on innovation and summary of your findings. Your LOI will be reviewed by the scientific committee on the volume. We will send out acceptance letters by the end of February 2019. Full papers (between 3000 and 5000 words) will be due by the end of June 2019, with the following anonymous internal review of the papers, and final edits to be completed by August 2019.

Libri Nigri requires submission of a camera-ready manuscript. The costs of copy-editing and ESL editing will be coming out of our very modest conference revenue. We hope that it will be sufficient for us to cover the editing expenses for the submissions from the conference speakers. If you were not a presenter at the Prague Nov 2018 conference, but would like to publish with us, upon acceptance of your paper we will ask you to contribute $100 to cover the technical costs of preparing the manuscript for publication.

Happy holidays to all of you

Olga
