I AM PSYCHED! FOR LGBTQI PRIDE MONTH

DATE AND TIME

Tue, June 12, 2018
1:00 PM – 3:00 PM EDT

DESCRIPTION

The American Psychological Association invites you to the I am Psyched! for LGBTQI Pride Month event. On June 12, we will present Inspiring History, Inspiring Lives citations to Drs. Connie Chan, Beverly Greene, and Oliva Espin.

Each of these prominent psychologists identify as LGBTQI and have broken barriers in their respective professional careers. They will share what inspires them about psychology and reflect on how they have overcome the professional and personal challenges they have faced. Join us for an afternoon of discussion aimed to educate and elevate as we celebrate our esteemed honorees.

Register at https://www.eventbrite.com/e/i-am-psyched-for-lgbtqi-pride-month-tickets-46022542664

Our honorees:

Connie S. Chan, PhD, is the first LGBT woman of color to be appointed as a tenured professor and as Associate Dean at the McCormack Graduate School of Policy and Global Studies, University of Massachusetts Boston.

Beverly Greene, PhD, ABPP, is the founding co-editor of the APA Society for the Psychology of Sexual Orientation and Gender Diversity book series Psychological Perspectives on Lesbian, Gay & Bisexual Issues.

Oliva M. Espín, PhD, is a pioneer in the practice and theory of therapy with women from different cultural backgrounds, particularly immigrant/refugee women.

Tanya L. Burrwell
Assistant Director, Women’s Programs Office, Public Interest Directorate
American Psychological Association

750 First Street NE, Washington DC 20002-4242
202-336-6049 O