Subject: IP--Tony Marsella sad news

It is with great sadness that I share information about Anthony Marsella's passing. He passed away on the 10th of November around 2am Atlanta time at home with his daughters by his side, surrounded by his books in the home he cherished.

Below is a brief message from Ann Marie Yamada, one of his former PhD students, who is overseeing plans for memorials and his legacy.

It is a great loss to the IP community

Louise

Anthony J. Marsella, age 84, passed away peacefully on November 10, 2024, from a long illness. Tony was born into a Sicilian-American immigrant family on September 12th, 1940 in Cleveland, Ohio. He lived in Atlanta, Georgia since retiring in 2003 as Emeritus Professor of Psychology, University of Hawai'i, Mānoa. Tony will be remembered by his two daughters and sons-in-law, four grandchildren, numerous cousins and a very large network of friends, colleagues and former students. He passed away peacefully at home with his daughters by his side. You'll find further information on efforts to memorialize him for those interested in this link to a Google Form: Anthony J Marsella Legacy

Show, by your actions, that you choose peace over war, freedom over oppression, voice over silence, service over self-interest, respect over advantage, courage over fear, cooperation over competition, action over passivity, diversity over uniformity, and justice over all.
